Terrace of Tranquility

On a Saturday afternoon, you gather with friends for an alfresco meal at the terrace dining area, where the aroma of delicious dishes mingles with the open-air breeze. As the sun begins to set, the fireplace becomes the warm heart of the evening, inviting laughter and conversation. Nearby, children enjoy the playground, filling the space with joy and energy, while the dip pool offers a refreshing pause under the fading light. At White

Area
